Mr Samsung is a very sincere employee working in a company. He believes in Indian Value System and is very much influenced by the teachings of our Vedas, Ramayana and Mahabharata. His superior is very kind, intelligent and well informed person having knowledge of various technicalities of the job. Mr Samsung respects his boss and is always looking forward to learn a lot from him. One day, Mr Samsung came to know that the behaviour of his boss is not good towards other employees and various employees are under continuous stress due to the rude behaviour of the boss towards them. Next day, Mr Samsung was compelled to inquire further in the office and got so many complaints against his boss. He was constantly disturbed by this behaviour of his boss towards other employees. At last, he inquired with the boss but his answer did not satisfy him. Though his boss behaves nicely with him, but his behaviour towards others is really very bad.

In such a situation, Mr Samsung is left with the following options. Analyze each option with its consequences :

- a) Just ignore thinking about it, as the behaviour of the boss is good towards him.
- b) Report the case to the appropriate authority.
